

English Language Teaching at Leeds Metropolitan University

Proposal to provide an eight-week English language programme for the Turkish Consortium

The proposal is for 'closed' groups of up to twenty-four students.

Proposed Course Dates

Mon 4 July 2011 to Friday 26 August 2011

Proposal prepared by Matthew Wilson

Senior Lecturer
English Language Teaching
Carnegie Faculty
Leeds Metropolitan University

23 March 2011

English Language Teaching at Leeds Metropolitan University is situated at our beautiful Headingley Campus only 3 miles from Leeds city centre. All of our programmes are recognised by the British Council and are taught by fully qualified and experienced teachers.

Proposed Programme

Section One: Course Content

Leeds Metropolitan University proposes an eight-week programme in English Language Development for students from the Turkish Consortium

The proposal is for a programme which would be delivered to up to two groups. The maximum size for each group is twenty-three students.

160 hours of ESL instruction including:

- 40 hours Examining British Culture (Living in Britain)
- 120 hours English language development (Upper Intermediate level)

Students will typically receive twenty hours tuition per week

The course will include:

- Course materials
- Access to university facilities on and off-campus, including:
- 24 hour library access
- Technology Enhanced Learning – online access to resources for learning
- Initial and final testing
- Certificate of Completion
- Group transfer to and from Leeds Bradford Airport on arrival and departure
- 'Homestay' accommodation with local families, half-board Mon – Fri, packed lunch at weekends

Academic Content

British life and culture.

One hour per day (Monday to Friday) of input sessions. Students will gain a deeper understanding of British society through lectures and collaborative activities.

English Language Development

Three hours per day from Monday to Friday of classroom based sessions where students will develop their Reading, Writing, Listening and Speaking skills.

All our tutors are qualified to British Council TEFLQ standard and are experts in English language teaching. Classroom activities will involve reviewing English grammar and syntax and also vocabulary development. There will be a particular emphasis on developing learners' academic reading and writing skills.

Example timetable 20 hours/wk

	9.00	10.00	11.00	12.00	13.00	14.00	15.00	16.00
Mon-Fri		British life and culture	Break	English language development	LUNCH	English language development

The tuition fees indicated below for the eight week course are for each group of students.

The maximum group size is twenty-four students.

Fees per group

£30,000 per group of up to 24

This fee includes

- tuition
- a £100 food card
- a transport pass for the eight week period*

for all students on the course.

 a passport sized photo of each student must be provided before 31 May 2011.*

A group leader (one for all the groups) will have ‘homestay’ accommodation and airport transfer included in this fee. All other costs (transport in Leeds, food on campus etc) will be met by this individual.

The tuition fees include:

- Access to university facilities on and off-campus, including:
- 24 hour library access
- Technology Enhanced Learning – online access to resources for learning
- Initial and final testing
- Certificate of Completion

Fixed fees of £1125 also apply for each individual student (see below)

Fixed fees per student

Fees for accommodation in ‘homestay’* 56 nights: £1055 per student

Fees for airport transfers from Leeds Bradford airport £50 per student

Associated course materials: £20 per student

*‘Homestay’ accommodation with local families, half-board Mon – Fri, packed lunch at weekends. No charge for group leader.

Fees for other arrival points will vary

Fee applies if all students arrive together.

We are confident that Leeds Metropolitan University can provide the right programme for you. If you require any more information, please do not hesitate to contact me

Matthew Wilson
Senior Lecturer in English Language Teaching
m.a.wilson@leedsmet.ac.uk
+44 (0)113 812 5387